DOMINICAN RUM
KIRK and SWEENEY
SANTIAGO De Los CABALLEROS, D.R.

★ TASTING NOTES ★

RESERVA

This deep mahogany colored rum presents a sweet aroma balanced heavily toward cane honey. Light notes of vanilla and wood hit the palate transforming into an incredibly smooth offering.

GRAN RESERVA

This full bodied rum delivers an intriguing range of aromas and flavors, from intense vanillas to faint notes of sherry and raisins – all built upon a notable undercurrent of roasted cane sugars.

GRAN RESERVA
Superior

This rum is as pleasantly complex as the nose would suggest, offering a rich evolution on the mouth - from fresh, sweet sensations to dried fruits. The balanced finish ranges from caramel and sherry to almond and vanilla.

XO

The nose dominates with layers of dried fruits and oak with subtle hints of caramel and toffee. At first sip, flavors of toasted oak and vanilla delight the senses with hints of raisin and sherry, built upon layers of spice and sweet dried fruits. Long, warm and robust finish through the end. This XO rum leaves you with a desire for more.

★ PRODUCTION ★

Handcrafted in the Dominican Republic, this rum adheres to the very strict regulations to be called “Dominican Rum”. To qualify as Dominican Rum the harvesting of the sugar cane, processing into molasses, distillation and aging must take place in the Dominican Republic.

The process begins with high-quality sugar cane sourced just south of Santo Domingo and is processed for fermentation and distillation. The rum is then aged in a variety of American and French oak barrels, with the distiller conducting various steps of dumping, blending and re-barreling through the years.

★ INSPIRATION ★

KIRK AND SWEENEY was a wooden schooner, best known for smuggling rum from the Caribbean to the Northeast during the early years of Prohibition. Legend has it that it was seized off the coast of New York with a massive amount of rum aboard. In the spirit of this rum runner, Kirk and Sweeney Dominican Rum is well worth pursuing.
