

July 2, 2021

WINE AND SUCH FOR THE WEEKEND; HELLO FOURTH OF JULY

By: Rita Cook

VPM: 1,500

Link to Full Article

Celebrate the July 4th weekend with a big bang and even more class when you pour these wines or other cocktails at your backyard gathering. And, we even include one for the designated driver.

Check out the new northeastern Italian label from 3 Badge Beverage Corp., Guinigi Wines. Guinigi specializes in both Prosecco, but the Pinot Grigio ($13.99) is the winner here and now available by the glass at Blue Sushi, the original sushi concept restaurant from Flagship

3 BADGE BEVERAGE CORPORATION

Restaurant Group and founded by Texas natives Anthony Hitchcock and Tony Gentile. Honoring the Italian heritage of proprietor August Sebastiani, Guinigi Wines appeal to lovers of crisp, clean whites. Produced in the Delle Venezie area of Veneto, the Pinot Grigio has the perfect aromas of apricot and hawthorn flowers, delicately balanced with a hint of minerality.

GUINIGI / PINOT GRIGIO